

Chambers Ireland & the Green Deal

Skills and Jobs for the Net Zero Transition

2 December @ 1pm

Register  <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYkcurqTwtHN0irAYKNygP7Elna9cyZ3ri>

Siobhán Kinsella – Moderator

Siobhán Kinsella, MBA, is Operations Director of The Noel Group and the immediate past-President of Chambers Ireland. Siobhán has a history of successful change management programmes, company integrations and delivery of demanding and complex projects.

Damian Thomas

Damian Thomas joined NESC in April 2010 having previously worked in the NCPP since 2002. Among the projects that Damian was directly involved in was the establishment of the Strategic Banking Corporation of Ireland.

Ross McNally

Ross McNally works as Programme Manager with the Irish Wind Energy Association, heading up the IWEA Offshore Committee where he is responsible for engaging with relevant stakeholders, leading on consultation responses and reports and representing the offshore industry in Ireland.

John Walsh

John Walsh is ESB's General Manager of Smart Energy Services which was formed to develop and deliver an integrated energy management solution for large energy users in UK and Ireland.

Sinéad Healy

Sinéad Healy is a Senior Public Affairs Executive with Dublin Chamber where she is central to the development of its sustainability agenda and has been part of the team to develop and launch the Sustainability Academy, sponsored by AIB.

Prof. Neil Rowan

Professor Neil Rowan is Director of Bioscience Research Institute at AIT and also holds Adjunct Professorship to School of Medicine at NUI Galway in disinfection, sterilization and biosecurity.