Advancing business together

TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR ENTRY

- A company must be located in the Republic of Ireland to enter these awards
- You may enter as many categories as you like, but you may only submit one entry per category
- You may only submit a specific project once. If you require guidance please contact Carly Mooney on 01 400 4300
- Given the high number of applications to some categories, it is sometimes necessary to divide them into subcategories. If a category needs to be divided, please note that we will use the following definitions:
 - A Multi-National Corporation (MNC) is defined for the Sustainable Business Impact Awards as a corporation that was originally established outside of Ireland with more than 50 employees
 - A Large Indigenous Company (LIC) is defined for the Sustainable Business Impact Awards as a company which has more than 50 employees and was originally established in Ireland. Companies considered partnerships which are Irish owned and operated are eligible for this category
 - An SME is defined for the Sustainable Business Impact Awards as any company having 50 employees or less
